

My whole family is involved in trucking in one way or another. Most of us have XM and the traffic is a great help to plan safe routes to deliver our loads. I dont understand why am/fm has a problem with XM, it is a service i pay for and Im sorry if they dont like the idea that I dont hear their paid sponsors advertisements. This sounds like another way big corps. like the drug companies try to stop anyone who wants to try something better